

THE TEACHERS TAUGHT.

Second Day of the Ohio County Institute at Elm Grove.

THE INTEREST MUCH INCREASED

And a Number of the Teachers Enrolled take Leading Parts in the Exercises—The Subject of School Punishments—Bright Ideas on the Teaching of Geography.

The second day of the Ohio county teachers institute, in session at Elm Grove, opened with an increased attendance. The interest of the first day was not only kept up, but it was much greater. The county superintendent, realizing that the great object of the teachers' institute is to get the teachers to work, on the evening of the first day assigned work, for some time during the session, to every member of the institute.

The exercises opened at 9 o'clock. "Come, Thou Fount of Every Blessing," was sung, after which Prof. Hauck read a short portion of scripture, when all joined and repeated the Lord's Prayer in concert. "There's a land that is fairer than day," was sung, after which the roll was called and nearly every teacher responded. Quite a number of new names were enrolled.

Prof. Walter Mitchell, principal of the Wellsburg public schools, was the first speaker, on the subject, "The first week in the country school."

He considers this a most important subject. The first day is the day in the school, especially to the young teacher. We ought to be able to get our school in good working order just as soon as possible. How can we do this? The teacher ought to go to the secretary of the board and find from him just what studies were pursued by the pupils the year before—From this he could make out his programme. He should find out all he could concerning the school before he begins.

Miss Ella Smith spoke briefly but very sensibly on the same subject.

Professor Crago spoke to the young teachers especially on the importance of making a good impression on the first day of school. It is the day of school to the young teachers.

Prof. Hauck spoke at length in his inimitable way on the same subject. He urged on the teachers not to talk too much. Have one call to order, etc. He spoke of the opening exercises. Have singing, music of some kind. The school without music ought to be relegated to the past ages. Be kind, but firm. The professor was very happy in his remarks, especially when he spoke of his own experience with the teacher who taught him how to study. He urged on all teachers to realize that one of their first duties was to teach the pupil how to study—i. e., how to do the work for themselves.

Recess was followed by singing "The West Virginia Hills," after which Prof. Maxwell, of Triadelphia, took up the subject of primary arithmetic. Teach the idea of unity, then two, three, four, etc.; first by objects, then pass to figures. Teach the digits first, and teach them well before they pass to larger numbers.

The explanation given of the method of subtracting one number from another created quite a discussion, which was indulged in by Messrs. Hauck, Crago, Mitchell and others. J. D. Muldon followed on the same subject, showing how to teach fractions to beginners. He showed that he understood his subject well. George E. Lewis continued speaking on how to teach pupils to count.

The institute then adjourned to meet at 1:15 p. m.

AFTERNOON.

It was opened on time by singing "We Shout for Joy."

After roll call the subject of school punishment was opened by Miss Minnie Winters, who took the ground that corporal punishment should be abolished; not by law, but by the teachers themselves. If we as teachers would think more there would be less boxing of ears and pulling of hair in the school room.

Miss Bertha Wilson read a short paper, taking the same ground. Firmness and kindness combined will do away with corporal punishment.

W. E. Powell thinks there are times when perhaps it is necessary to inflict corporal punishment.

J. W. Farmer said that if the rod were abolished entirely from our schools we might as well close many of our schools. Don't scold. A teacher that scolds continually is not fit to be in the school room.

Maggie A. Carter gave her plan of teaching geography. She connects history with geography, uses the board a great deal in recitation, and uses the topical method.

Miss Ada Gardner followed on the same subject. After the regular recitation the pupils go to the board and write from memory what they could concerning the lesson.

Miss Vogel spoke more particularly of primary geography. She was in favor of using clay modeling. She conducted a short recitation on the geography of the United States.

Both subjects were further discussed by E. Taylor and L. M. Crow, of Marshall county. Prof. Crago and Hauck, all agreeing that the teacher who punishes least governs best. The greater the skill the less the punishment.

A short recess was greatly enjoyed by all, after which Miss Mamie M. Blaney gave a short talk on the subject of physiology, speaking more particularly of the importance of teaching the children all about their bodies. G. W. Bonar followed in the same strain.

C. S. Atkinson spoke of the importance of knowing what to do in the case of accidents happening to us in the absence of medical aid.

Mrs. Annie Mitchell, one of the teachers of the Wellsburg schools, gave an exercise in callisthenics, nearly all the teachers taking part. She also gave a short drill in vocal gymnastics. Both exercises were greatly enjoyed.

Prof. Mitchell talked a short time on school punishment, combating the idea that corporal punishment was cruel.

The enrollment reaches seventy-eight, and the interest has increased as the hours go by.

STREET CARS TIED UP.

Several Electrical Cars of the Wheeling Company are Attached.

Somewhat over a year ago Miss Maggie Lewis, of Etnaville, was hurt in a runaway car on the Martin's Ferry end of the Wheeling electrical railway. The accident happened on the Fourth street grade. Miss Lewis, who is a sister of W. T. Lewis, Ohio's labor commissioner, brought suit against the company for $10,000 damages. The case was tried in the common pleas court at St. Clairsville and the jury returned a verdict for $4,500. The case was carried to the circuit court and there the company lost. The money has never been paid, and yesterday Miss Lewis's attorneys had four street cars attached and tied up. These were seized by Deputy Sheriff Darby and Westwood.

Three were Martin's Ferry cars and were attached in Etnaville and run up to the end of the line. The fourth was an Island car. This was caught at the west end of the steel bridge at Etnaville, and taken up to Martin's Ferry by James Balston, who had been hired for the purpose. The motorman and conductor refused to run the car to Martin's Ferry after it had been attached. The crews on the three Martin's Ferry cars did as Sheriff Darby told them.

The value of the cars being $14,800, or $3,700 each, the sheriff thought they had enough and did not attach any others.

The cars lay at the upper end of the Martin's Ferry line from 1 o'clock until 3. In the meantime General Manager Jolly was notified and appeared on the scene. He gave or promised to give an appeal bond and the handles were turned over to the motorman, and Sheriff Darby told them to put on their coats and start the cars. The men had remained on duty, several hours without their dinner, and they started the cars, one at a time. The presence of the four cars tied up in front of the Bayless house attracted a large crowd, and all sorts of remarks were heard. Many persons kicked when they appeared and found the cars were not running.

Two and a half, the liverymen, started a covered wagon between Martin's Ferry and the bridge and it did a good business.

The Wheeling Railway Company will carry the case to the supreme court.

The German Veterans' Picnic.

The picnic given by the German Kreisverein at the state fair grounds yesterday was unusually well attended during the evening, although but lightly during the afternoon. The society gave a fine parade, headed by the Opera House band, before adjourning to the grounds. Here the time was spent pleasantly with dancing, concert music and various agreeable pastimes.

The three-mile foot race was cut down to two miles on account of the failure to get enough men to oppose E. C. McClelland, who beat the two selected with ease. He also added an extra half mile to the race, merely for an exhibition.

William Greer won the mile dash bicycle race, and carried off the gold medal; time 2:55. J. E. McCarty took the second prize, a silver medal, Hal Hawkins, third, and Will Kuhn, fourth. Hawkins claims he can beat any of these men if another race is run.

MARTIN'S FERRY.

Haps and Mishaps in the Thriving City Across the River.

Hereafter council will have to be more careful in the expenditure of money. The kicking of the taxpayers against the lavish expenditure has ended in an organization of taxpayers, which proposes to call a halt. The association will see that no illegal contracts are entered into, and that no contracts are made for the expenditure of money when there are no funds on hand for that purpose. They do not design to interfere with the general government of the city or its advancement, so far as the present levy will permit.

Up to last night Prof. Lee's backers had not put up a forfeit for his race against the time made by the Martin's Ferry firemen from Harrisville to Martin's Ferry, and most of the boys think Lee is only talking through his hat. Lee was seen last night and says he means business. He says he is not now and never has been afraid of the Bellaire fox hunter, about which the independent talks.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenworthy Hoge and daughters, of Mt. Pleasant, and the Misses Scott, of the same place, will go to the World's Fair to-day over the Wheeling & Lake Erie railroad. A large party from Steubenville will go on the same train.

The Wheeling & Lake Erie offers a $3 rate to Lakeside, good from next Saturday until Tuesday, and including a ride on the lake and two admissions to the grounds. This is less than one-half the regular fare one way.

It is believed that fifty men will go from Martin's Ferry to Marietta to attend the firemen's tournament, this to include the independents.

Miss Alice Updegraff and Ben Updegraff, of Mt. Pleasant, were in town yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hilton and children will go to Cambridge to-day.

Miss Ada Joy left yesterday to visit at Wellsburg.

Miss Sadie Watkins left yesterday for Cleveland.

Ed Virtue goes to the World's Fair to-day.

Fred Flooding, of Salem, is in town.

NOTES ON NAVIGATION.

Stage of Water and Movements of Boats. The River Interest.

Courier, for Parkersburg, at 3 p. m.; H. K. Bedford, for Marietta, at 9 a. m., and the Nora, for New Matamoras, at 6 a. m., were yesterday's departures.

Last evening the stage of water as recorded at the public landing was 2 feet 5 inches, much lower than it has been at any previous time this year. There is no prospect for a rise soon.

The H. K. Bedford is temporarily out of the Pittsburgh-Wheeling trade. She left yesterday for Marietta, where she will go to the bank for a general overhauling. Captain Green, her commander, lives at Marietta.

Captain John K. Booth left for Point Pleasant yesterday, where he will meet the low water boat Frank Preston, which he will place in the Clarington trade in place of the Liberty, which will go to the bank for repairs. The Preston will be here to-morrow and will at once enter her new trade.

"Be sure you get Ayer's" is an important caution to all in search of a thoroughly reliable blood purifier, Ayer's Sarsaparilla being the one on which there can be no manner of doubt. It has stood the test of nearly half a century, and has long been considered the standard.

Bellaire.

All Sorts of Local News and Gossip from the Glass City.

The B. & O. Railroad Company yesterday tore down the old car repair shop that has stood across Thirty-second street ever since the town was built. It occupied ground originally bought by Colonel Sullivan for the railroad company, and when the town was laid out one street passed through the center of it, but could never be removed except by agreement with the railroad company, and this was made some years ago, but the shop remained until the company abandoned its use, after building shops in Benwood, and it was torn away yesterday, thus opening that street for travel westward for the first time in the history of the city. The residents on the hillside are especially glad of it, as it affords them a more convenient route to the city than they have ever had.

It is thought here that the starting of Jones & Laughlin's mills in Pittsburgh is a good omen, as the scale in force there was a basis on which the Bellaire nail works settled all questions of dispute last year. But this plant will not be ready to operate before the first of next month or later, owing to the extensions and improvements being made.

Auditor Henderson yesterday served notice on all dealers in cigarettes that the tax of $100 to retailers and $300 to wholesalers dated from the fourth Monday of May. None of the cigar or tobacco dealers here will continue the business, but one saloon man will take out retailers license.

The case of John Duke against the city for $300 damages for his incarceration in the lockup on a charge of intoxication was called before Squire Mason yesterday. City Solicitor Woodbridge made a motion to dismiss the case and the squire sustained the motion.

Sparks from the Bellaire, Zanesville & Cincinnati railroad set fire to and destroyed some of the frame buildings on the Bethel camp ground, but the company will put up new ones at once and the camp meeting will be held as usual this season.

The Silver Lake quartette and W. C. Bentley gave an interesting entertainment in the Christian church last night, and there was a splendid audience out and all were delighted with the music and also with the lecture.

James F. Anderson, Esq., and wife returned from the World's Fair yesterday. They were well pleased with the mammoth exposition, but are united in the statement that no one can see it to appreciate it in a short time.

The city council met in regular session last night and transacted considerable routine business, and granted W. S. McCollough the right to lay a switch to his brick yard on certain conditions.

Chalkley Dawson, the well known civil engineer, was seized with a severe attack of cramps yesterday.

Duane Cowen is home from a week's stay in the country, but his family is still enjoying rural life.

The American Mechanics' band will play for the Odd Fellows' celebration at Bellaire to-morrow.

John E. Shelly, A. O. Mellott and John Zweig are all home from the World's Fair.

A General Restorative.

The above term more adequately describes the nature of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters than any other. The medicine is a specific for all cases of indigestion, dyspepsia and liver complaint, but is invigorating and regulating qualities invest it with a health-giving potency made manifest throughout the system. Purity and activity of the circulation are insured by it, and it effectually counteracts tendencies to kidney disease, rheumatism, neuralgia and gout.

LUXURIES at the Wheeling Bakery to-day for rich and poor. The famous Boston Brown Bread will be on sale to-day at our retail department. You will find it of a quality and quantity sufficient to start the hair on a New England Bald. We have taken special pains to get men and material to produce this great Eastern luxury and now announce it for sale in all its purity.

For Over Fifty Years.

Mrs. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP has been used for over fifty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething, with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for Diarrhoea. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," and take no other kind.

W.F.W.

Is Life Worth Living?

That depends upon the Liver. If the Liver is inactive the whole system is out of order—the breath is bad, digestion poor, head dull or aching, energy and helpfulness gone, the spirit is depressed, a heavy weight exists after eating, with general despondency and the blues. The Liver is the housekeeper of the health; and a harmless, simple remedy that acts like Nature, does not constipate afterwards or require constant taking, does not interfere with business or pleasure during its use, makes Simmons Liver Regulator a medical perfection.

I have tested its virtues personally, and know that for Dyspepsia, Biliousness and Troubling Headache, it is the best medicine the world ever saw. Have tried forty other remedies before. Simmons Liver Regulator, and none of them gave more than temporary relief, but the Regulator not only relieved but cured.
